

EPILEPTIC DISORDERS

General Registration

Gaining Online Access:

- Members are sent an access code by email, along with instructions for authenticating their access on Wiley Online Library. This is a one-time activation. To access content subsequently, members simply login using their WOL credentials.
- Login directly on WOL rather than via the society website. Access lasts 13 months from the date that the member registers on Wiley Online Library using the online access instructions provided
- If a member has an issue with the instructions or gaining access, they can reach out to jbarry@wiley.com for assistance

Example of Online Access Instructions:

Dear Member,

As part of your membership with a chapter of the International League Against Epilepsy you are entitled to online access to Epileptic Disorders through Wiley Online Library.

How to Access Your Journal Content:

Please follow the below steps. You will need a Wiley Online Library login. If you do not have a registered account, please register here before continuing. <http://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/user-registration>

If you have a login but have forgotten your password please visit <http://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/user/forgottenpassword>

Link the journal to your registered account to enable full text access:

- Go to the Wiley Online Library homepage: <https://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/action/societyMemberLogin/>
- Enter your Wiley Online Library login (email address & password)
- Enter your Membership Number: None (the word 'none' must be keyed in)
- Enter your Access Code: *********
- Submit
- Log out and login again to refresh your journal access

These instructions only need to be followed once and the journal/s can then be accessed at any time by logging into Wiley Online Library <http://onlinelibrary.wiley.com/>
